

Dear Friend,

The last couple of months have been full of nudges from the universe. Have you felt a few nudges yourself?

For me, topics I've mulled over forever have gently been brought to a head, hesitations I've had were put under an undeniable spotlight...It doesn't always seem so at the time, but the farther I go, the more I see an invisible hand of love in each of these bumps forward.

Perhaps our nudges might coincide. The Chorus and I are now hosting Live Q&A sessions for our supporters. Do you have questions about what you're experiencing? We would love to offer a perspective!

Our next live session will be Tuesday, June 7, 8am Pacific / 11am EST.

As a preview, you can see recordings of some prior sessions on our YouTube channel.

When your nudge comes, you'll know. The universe makes it foolproof. How? The universe is love...and also it's not just the universe that creates these things. The universe has a partner in us. The part of us that knows it's time to awaken and guide ourselves home.

With infinite love and appreciation,

Katie

From The Chorus

"Our Dearest Ones,

Our Bridge Builder senses many beings in her vicinity lately. "What's all the fuss about?" she asks.

"It's about all of you," we reply.

You are just coming to an understanding of the incredible creation you made. In fact, you are still just coming to the idea, as a civilization, that you created something incredible together. Under the facade of human drama, where you argue and divide, you have actually been a force united in the achievement of extraordinary ends...and beginnings.

We will not give away the punch line, because it is not ours to give. It's yours. To discover, to uncover, to remember and to form perspectives of.

See if you can feel it beginning within you already. Does a sense of wonder ever sweep through your being? Do you feel as though you could imagine a mystery and a miracle all wrapped into one? Do you have an idea, at times, that perhaps there is so much more going on than you had to this point been able to perceive?

Then you already know what the fuss is about.

All of us are here for all of you.

We love you infinitely,

-THE CHORUS
